

Progressive Feedback is a full concept to improve the quality, learning and wellbeing in kindergartens

OBSERVATION

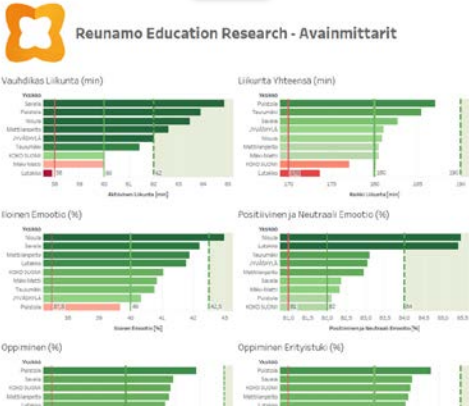

Wellbeing indicators

Impact of the pedagogical action culture

The impact of leadership

FEEDBACK

Reunamo-method

ANALYTICS

Principals survey

Learning environment survey

Child survey

PF observation and learning areas

A. The general activity frame of the child

(Example of all observation areas in topic A)

1. Direct education inside.
2. Guided or scaffolded play indoors.
3. Indoor free play.
4. Outdoor activity.
5. Basic care.
6. Eating.
7. Napping.

B. The main action of the child

C. The child's main object of attention

D. The main social peer contact

E. The physical activity level of the child

F. Child's involvement

G. Emotion

H. Social orientation

I. The main action of the related or nearest adult

II. <https://tableau.edu.helsinki.fi/>

OBSERVATION

CHILD PARTICIPATION

ADULT'S ROLE

One example of Reunamo PF results and analysis
There are tens of areas of observation results

